

Where to sleep

I - Paris area

II - Near the venue

If you plan to book only on friday night for instance, you may choose a hotel near the Best Western (formerly know as Holiday Inn), which may not be a 4-star but will be quite cheaper for a 2 people bedroom.

The Campanile just close to the Best Western is 60 EUR for one night (2 people bedroom), and the Premiere Classe may be even cheaper. Again, that's if you book now.

You may google 'hotel roissy en france', and here's the booking.com link to the hotels:

These are the hotels we would recommend, there're close to the Best Western (UTXIV venue):
